On the heels of three regular-season and three conference tournament titles in the previous four seasons, the Creighton Volleyball program enters 2016 brimming with confidence after a trip to the Sweet 16 last fall.

Four starters, including All-Americans Lauren Smith and Jaali Winters, return from that 27-9 team that finished last fall ranked No. 19 nationally.

Smith was an all-tournament team selection in each preseason event last fall. Her dominance continued all season, as the 6-foot-3 middle blocker led the league in both blocks per set (1.27) and hitting percentage (.343). Smith was named an AVCA First Team All-East Region performer, as well as an Honorable Mention All-American following the year.

Jaali Winters

All Winters did as a freshman was produce one of the greatest seasons in school history by an outside hitter. The 6-foot-3 outside hitter set a school record with 546 kills, which helped her attain AVCA Third Team All-America accolades. Winters was a unanimous choice for BIG EAST Freshman of the Year, and also went on to claim First Team All-BIG EAST and AVCA All-East Region honors.

Two other returning starters, Jess Bird and Marysa Wilkinson, both boast extensive experience, with a penchant for stepping up play in the postseason.

Bird is a three-year starter and one of the most well-rounded players in the BIG EAST. She was named MVP of the 2015 BIG EAST Championship, as Creighton swept Villanova for the title.

Wilkinson played on the right side as a freshman before moving to the middle early last season, a switch that helped turn the year around. The junior ranked among the conference leaders in blocks and hitting percentage. She was named to the All-Tournament Team at the 2014 BIG EAST Championships.

Adding to Creighton's potent offensive repertoire is 6-foot-4 pin attacker Taryn Kloth. She had five or more kills in 21 different matches last year, and came on strong down the stretch of her freshman campaign.

The battle for setter figures to be a good one, with multiple options to choose from. Kenzie Crawford started 11 matches last season running the Bluejay offense, but she'll be pushed by Purdue transfer Lydia Dimke and true freshman Jaclyn Taylor. Sophomore Samantha Bohnet also has a setting background and produced a double-double in her lone start last fall.

Crawford and Bohnet join senior Amanda Foje as some of the program's most experienced defenders. Foje played in all 36 matches last year, mostly as a serving specialist, but opportunities to play exist as CU looks to replace graduated seniors Kate Elman, Ashley Jansen and Melanie Jereb in the back row.

Lauren Smith

Also in the mix for a defensive role are true freshmen Mac Conlon and Brittany Witt, who combined for more than 4,400 digs at the high school level.

In contention for a spot in the front row for CU will be sophomores Brittany Lawrence and Kelsey O'Connell, as well as freshman Megan Ballenger.

Lawrence and O'Connell each gained experience last year, while Ballenger redshirted after a preseason injury. Lawrence and O'Connell both have good size and blocking potential, while Ballenger can play virtually any position on the court.

As has become its calling card, Creighton once again has a challenging non-conference schedule. All but one foe had a top-90 RPI last fall, and each of the first seven opponents earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament in 2015.

Jess Bird, Marysa Wilkinson and Taryn Kloth

Kirsten Bernthal Booth

Few programs have grown on the national landscape more than Creighton during the past 13 years under the direction of two-time National Coach of the Year Kirsten Bernthal Booth.

Since inheriting a 3-23 team in 2002, Booth has steadily built a program that has appeared in the nation's Top 25 poll each of the last four years, and five of the last six NCAA Tournaments.

Fresh off a run to the Sweet 16, Booth's 2016 team looks to win a conference title for the fourth time in five seasons as one of the nation's emerging programs.

Last season Creighton swept No. 10 Kentucky early in the fall, then completed a second straight sweep of the BIG EAST regular-season and tournament titles. The team earned the No. 16 national seed in the NCAA Tournament, where it beat Coastal Carolina and No. 23 North Carolina to advance to the Sweet 16 for the first time. Lauren Smith was named an honorable-mention All-American after leading the league in blocks and hitting percentage, while Jaali Winters set a school record for kills and finished as BIG EAST and AVCA East Region Freshman of the Year before being recognized as a Third Team All-American. Booth was named BIG EAST Coach of the Year, as well as AVCA East Region Coach of the Year, for her efforts.

In 2014 Creighton finished 25-9 while winning BIG EAST regular-season and tournament titles. The Bluejays earned a spot in a third straight NCAA Tournament after becoming the school's first team in any sport to win a BIG EAST Tournament title. Kelli Browning earned Third Team All-America honors at year's end from the AVCA to cap a standout career.

Creighton's 2013 campaign opened with a win over No. 13 BYU en route to a Hampton Inn Invitational title, and CU led the nation in blocks per set. That club was anchored by all-league picks Leah McNary and Browning, reaching the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Booth owns an impressive past, both on and off the court.

Creighton has gone 262-146 while averaging 1,196 fans per home match in Booth's tenure, compared to a 93-152 mark and 215 fans per match the nine years before her arrival. All of Booth's teams have qualified for the conference tournament, with nine of the last 10 squads reaching the semifinals.

Booth's .642 winning percentage and 262 wins are easily the best in Creighton volleyball's modern history. Booth owns 374 career victories, an average of 23.4 wins per season, when you add in her 112 wins in three years at Kirkwood (Iowa) Community College.

In her first 13 seasons, Booth has coached 24 First Team and 12 Second Team All-Conference picks, while also recruiting and coaching 12 MVC All-Freshman Team honorees. Booth's teams have won 10 AVCA Team Academic Awards and featured CoSIDA Academic All-Americans Emily Greisch (2006) and Megan Bober (2012).

Booth was named 2012 Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year and CaptainU National Coach of the Year after the best season in program history. Creighton finished 29-4 while sweeping the MVC regular-season and tournament titles in a season for the ages. CU went 12-1 at home (9-0 in MVC play) and produced a program-record 17-match win streak that carried into the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Bober was named MVC Player of the Year, while Browning was tabbed as MVC Defensive Player of the Year. Both women were named All-American Honorable Mention by the AVCA. In addition, Creighton landed Melanie Jereb and Kate Elman on the MVC's All-Freshman Team.

The 2011 season saw the Bluejays claim three First Team All-Valley picks for just the second time in program history, including the program's first MVC Libero of the Year accolade.

Creighton's 2010 NCAA Tournament run included an inspiring first-round victory over No. 16 Iowa State, and helped the Bluejays earn votes in the year-ending top-25 poll. The campaign saw the Bluejays rally from a slow start to finish third in the Missouri Valley Conference. Creighton reached the MVC Tournament finals for the first time after beating Wichita State in the semifinals, which helped secure a much-deserved at-large bid. Bober was named First Team All-MVC and All-Central Region, going on to earn Honorable Mention All-America accolades.

Add it up, and it quickly becomes evident why Booth was named 2010 National Coach of the Year by Collegiate Volleyball Update.

The at-large berth into the 2010 NCAA Tournament came not long after back-to-back second-place finishes in the Missouri Valley Conference resulted in near-misses to the 2007 and 2008 NCAA Tournaments.

The 2008 Bluejay squad finished in sole possession of second place for the first time in program history after going 15-3 in league play. Playing the most difficult non-conference schedule in program history, Creighton finished 18-9 overall and had the second-best RPI of any team to not receive an NCAA bid.

That club saw Korie Lebeda close her career as Creighton's all-time assist leader, while Jessica Houts was named MVC Defensive Player of the Year and earned AVCA All-America Honorable Mention accolades. Omaha product Amanda Cvejdlik joined Lebeda and Houts on the All-MVC First Team, while libero Bianca Rivera was a Second Team All-Valley selection.

Creighton's 2007 team finished 21-10 and tied for second in the MVC with a 14-4 record. The Jays became the first team in history to rally from an 0-2 deficit to win at UNI on September 21, and hosted a record-setting crowd (13,081) at CenturyLink Center Omaha on September 1 vs. Cal Poly. Lebeda set a Creighton record for career assists, Rivera set a record for single-season digs, and Kelly Goc broke season and career marks for hitting percentage. Goc would also become the program's first All-America Honorable Mention.

Kirsten Bernthal Booth

Booth's 2006 team won a then-record 21 matches, picking up in-season tournament titles at Montana State and Middle Tennessee, and reached the MVC Tournament semifinals. They also took a set from eventual national champion Nebraska and picked up three wins over long-time nemesis Illinois State, as well as a victory at Wichita State.

The 2005 campaign was highlighted by the program's first win at Northern Iowa, a win over Marquette, and the title at the San Diego State Invitational. The Bluejays finished 16-14.

Booth's 2004 club won a then-record 18 matches while also picking up tournament titles at events hosted by New Mexico and Missouri. Creighton was also the only club in the MVC to beat the regular-season and tourney champ, Wichita State, in 2004.

In 2003, Booth took a team that went 3-23 prior to her arrival and improved that nearly identical squad to a 12-18 mark in her debut season at Creighton. That fall, the Bluejays helped pave the foundation for a promising future by signing five Nebraska products that remains one of the program's top recruiting classes in history.

Booth has proven to be a popular coach among her players and within the Omaha community, which is a key factor in the team's record crowds, ranking among the top-50 nationally each of the last 10 seasons.

Another reason that Creighton is a program on the rise is D.J. Sokol Arena inside the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center. The on-campus facility opened in 2009 to rave reviews and hosted six volleyball matches involving ranked teams in its inaugural year, including Creighton's four-set win over No. 25 Wichita State. Creighton is 78-23 in its six seasons at the facility, where it owns a 55-7 mark in conference play.

On the court, Booth was an All-State setter in high school at Lincoln (Neb.) East and Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association MVP in college at Truman State.

Off the court, she earned Academic All-American honors and was named the 1997 Missouri NCAA Woman of the Year.

Prior to coming to Creighton, Booth went a combined 112-41 in three seasons at Kirkwood Community College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. All three of her teams won at least 36 matches. Her 2000 team reached the NJCAA finals before falling to St. Clair College. Her 2001 team placed fourth nationally and her 2002 club won 39 matches and had seven players earn academic all-conference honors. Twice, she was named District Coach of the Year.

In addition to her coaching responsibilities, she served as the school's human resource coordinator, where she was in charge of staff development and wellness for all faculty and staff at Kirkwood.

Booth served as a volunteer coach with the University of Iowa in the fall of 1997, helping to run drills and scout opponents. The following spring, she served as interim head coach while running practice and doing other assorted administrative tasks. She later earned her master's degree in higher education administration with an emphasis in athletic administration from Iowa in 2000.

As an undergrad, Booth's teams at Truman State went 101-54. She ran the offense as the setter and Booth named the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletic Association Freshman of the Year in 1993, and earned All-MIAA accolades her final three seasons as well. She capped off her career in 1996 by earning MIAA Player of the Year honors and setting new school records for assists in a season (1,662) and career (6,077), the latter of which ranked third in NCAA history at the Division II level when she graduated. She was inducted into Truman State's Athletic Hall of Fame in October, 2011.

She was also a member of the Student Senate at Truman State, where she graduated magna cum laude with a degree in communications.

Growing up, Booth excelled in both tennis and volleyball at Lincoln East High School, where she is a member of the school's Athletic Hall of Fame. In tennis, she was a three-time All-American and two-time state champion at No. 1 singles.

Booth and her husband, Erik, reside in Omaha. The couple have three daughters: Reese (11), Hayden (9) and Berkeley (5).

2015 (27-9, 17-1 BIG EAST, Final RPI of 14)
Creighton won its second consecutive BIG EAST regular-season and tournament titles to earn its fifth NCAA Tournament bid in six seasons, then advanced to the Sweet 16 for the first time in program history. Creighton played five top-11 teams in non-conference play, including a 3-0 sweep over No. 10 Kentucky. A five-set comeback over Kansas State ignited a 12-match win streak, and CU won the BIG EAST by three games with a 17-1 mark. The Bluejays then defended their home court with victories over Marquette and Villanova to win the BIG EAST Tournament. Creighton earned the No. 16 national seed and was sent to Chapel Hill, N.C., for postseason play. CU defeated Coastal Carolina and No. 23 North Carolina to clinch a Sweet 16 appearance, where it won the first set from No. 2 USC before falling in four sets. The most victorious senior class in program history (104 wins) was led by all-time digs leader Kate Elman, while Jess Bird was named BIG EAST Tourney MVP. Jaali Winters spearheaded the nation's No. 11 recruiting class and was named BIG EAST Freshman of the Year and Third Team All-American while setting a CU record for kills in a season. Lauren Smith was First Team All-BIG EAST and Honorable-Mention All-American. Kirsten Bernthal Booth was named BIG EAST Coach of the Year and AVCA East Region Coach of the Year.

2014 (25-9, 16-2 BIG EAST, Final RPI of 34)
Creighton won both the regular-season and tournament titles in the BIG EAST while advancing to a third consecutive NCAA Tournament. The Bluejays opened the year 7-6 against a ruthless non-conference schedule, but did earn a victory over former MVC rival Wichita State to win the Bluejay Invitational for the first time. The Jays avenged both regular-season losses in BIG EAST play with a 3-1 triumph over Seton Hall in the BIG EAST Championship final. Lauren Smith (MVP), Leah McNary and Marysa Wilkinson were named to the All-Tournament Team, while Kelli Browning and Jess Bird were named First Team All-BIG EAST. Browning would close her career as CU's all-time leader in attack percentage and block assists while being named a Third Team All-American by the AVCA and the Omaha Sports Woman of the Year by the Omaha Sports Hall of Fame. The year also saw Kate Elman become CU's all-time digs leader.

2013 (23-9, 12-4 BIG EAST, Final RPI of 18)
Creighton's first season in the BIG EAST saw the Bluejays attain a year-end RPI of 18 to go with runner-up finishes in league play during both the regular-season and league tournament. Ranked 24th nationally in the preseason AVCA poll, Creighton opened a challenging preseason schedule with a 3-1 win over No. 13 BYU, part of a stretch that also featured matches vs. California, Kansas, Cal State Northridge, UCLA, Hawai'i and Wichita State. Kelli Browning and Michelle Sicner were named All-American Honorable Mention by the AVCA, while Browning and Leah McNary were First Team All-BIG EAST. CU led the nation with 3.06 blocks per set. The Bluejays reached the NCAA Tournament for the third time in four seasons, defeating Arkansas before falling in four sets at Kansas.

2012 (29-4, 17-1 MVC, Final RPI of 24)
One of the best seasons by any women's team in Creighton history saw the Bluejays close their 19-year run in the MVC by winning the program's first Valley regular-season and Tournament titles. CU won regular-season tournaments at South Florida and Northern Colorado before clinching the outright league crown with a memorable 3-2 comeback win at rival Wichita State. The Jays swept the Shockers eight days later for the Valley Tourney title, then defeated Marquette in straight sets to open NCAA Tournament play before falling in four frames at Minnesota. Megan Bober was named MVC Player of the Year and Tournament MVP, while Kelli Browning was tabbed MVC Defensive Player of the Year after tying for the national lead with 204 blocks. Both women were named All-Americans Honorable Mention and were joined on the All-MVC First Team by freshman Melanie Jereb. Kirsten Bernthal Booth was named MVC Coach of the Year and CaptainU National Coach of the Year. Creighton also spent four weeks in the AVCA Top 25 for the first time, reaching as high as No. 21 before finishing No. 24.

2011 (17-14, 12-6 MVC, Final RPI of 74)
Creighton finished the 2011 season with a 17-14 mark, falling in the quarterfinals of the MVC Tournament. The Bluejays tied a program record with three First Team All-MVC picks (Megan Bober, Laurel Sanford and MVC Libero of the Year Julianne Mandolfo). Bober set an MVC single-season record with nine triple-doubles, while Mandolfo set CU single-season records for digs and digs per set. Leah McNary and Michelle Sicner, were named to the MVC's All-Freshman squad.

2010 (21-12, 13-5 MVC, Final RPI of 32)
Creighton's breakthrough season saw the Bluejays make their first NCAA Tournament, upset No. 16 Iowa State, and Kirsten Bernthal Booth claim National Coach of the Year honors from CVU.com. Creighton finished third in the MVC, the nation's sixth-ranked conference, and then broke down another barrier by reaching its first conference tournament final. The Jays earned an at-large bid and beat Iowa State in five sets before falling at No. 12 Minnesota in the NCAA Tourney. Sophomore setter Megan Bober was named First Team All-MVC and All-American Honorable Mention as part of a balanced squad that ranked second nationally in digs per set (18.94).

2009 (14-17, 10-8 MVC, Final RPI of 86)
Creighton opened D.J. Sokol Arena inside the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center, setting a school record with 10 home wins. Creighton beat No. 25 Wichita State on Oct. 2 for its first win over a ranked opponent, and hosted the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament for the first time at year's end. The team overcame a 3-8 non-conference mark with a fourth-place finish in the MVC. Jessica Houts was named First Team All-MVC to lead a Creighton defense that ranked third nationally in blocks per set.

2008 (18-9, 15-3 MVC, Final RPI of 46)
Creighton narrowly missed an NCAA bid, finishing with the second-best RPI of any team left out of the field. The Bluejays dropped key five-set matches to No. 21 LSU and UAB early in the year and a chance to pick up some key wins was lost when a tournament was cancelled due to a hurricane in Texas. Creighton cruised through the league with a 15-3 mark, including a sweep of UNI on the last weekend of the year, to finish alone in second place and set a program record with an eighth-straight win. However, the Bluejays dropped a five-set match to UNI in the MVC Tournament semifinals. Jessica Houts was named MVC Defensive Player of the Year and Honorable Mention All-American and joined teammates Korie Lebeda and Amanda Cvejdlik on the All-MVC First Team.

2007 (21-10, 14-4 MVC, Final RPI of 56)
Creighton didn't receive an NCAA Tournament at-large bid after a second consecutive 21-10 campaign. The Jays tied for second in the MVC but despite one of the nation's top-15 toughest non-conference schedules, weren't among four MVC teams selected to the NCAA's. Kelly Goc and Korie Lebeda both repeated as First Team All-Valley picks, with Goc also named an All-American Honorable Mention. Allie Oelke was MVC Freshman of the Year and libero Bianca Rivera set a single-season dig mark. Creighton averaged a record 1,860 fans per home match, hosting more than 13,000 at CenturyLink Center Omaha for a Sept. 2 contest vs. Cal Poly.

2006 (21-10, 12-6 MVC, Final RPI of 57)
Creighton's first team to win 20 or more matches ranked among the national leaders in attendance as well. A five-set road win at Wichita State and exciting four-set match against eventual national champion Nebraska before more than 12,000 fans prove the program reached previously unprecedented heights. Kelly Goc and Korie Lebeda were both named First Team All-Valley as the Jays beat three teams that reached the NCAA Tournament.

2005 (16-14, 10-8 MVC, Final RPI of 124)
A road win at Northern Iowa highlighted a 16-14 season. Leah Ratzlaff repeated her First Team All-MVC honors and finished 12th in league history in career kills. Freshman Korie Lebeda topped the MVC with a school-record 13.34 assists per set and was joined by talented classmates Jessica Houts and Amanda Cvejdlik.

2004 (18-11, 10-8 MVC, Final RPI of 95)
A then-school-record seven-match winning streak that included victories at Missouri, New Mexico and Iowa helped Creighton reach 18 wins. Leah Ratzlaff was First Team All-MVC, while Carolyn Decker and Kelly Goc were named to the MVC's All-Freshman Team.

2003 (12-18, 9-9 MVC, Final RPI of 170)
With virtually the same personnel, Booth's first team improved its win total from 2002 by nine wins to finish 12-18. The season marked the program's move to the Omaha Civic Auditorium, and attendance records fell. Single-season school records were set for kills (Leah Ratzlaff), digs (Janeen Piller), blocks (Ashley Williams) and assists (Brittany Coleman).

Ryan Meek

Ryan Meek is in his first year at Creighton as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator after spending the last five seasons as head coach at Hendrix College in Conway, Ark., where he helped the Warriors to a 110-64 record.

The Warriors went 29-9 overall in 2015 as Meek was named the National Coach of the Year at the Division III level by the American Volleyball Coaches Association, after helping Hendrix to the national semifinals. He also earned Southern Athletic Association Coach of the Year honors for the second year in a row after winning back-to-back regular season and conference tournament titles. His 2015 squad finished with a No. 8 ranking in the AVCA Top 25 Division III poll. Hendrix finished second in the nation in attacks, third in digs, fifth in assists, sixth in kills and 12th in total blocks.

In 2014, the Warriors set a program record with a 31-6 record and won their first SAA regular season and tournament titles. Meek's squad advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament and finished the season with 43 votes in the AVCA Top 25 Poll. He earned SAA Coach of the Year honors for his efforts. The 2014 Hendrix team finished 10th in the nation in kills, 14th in hitting percentage, 16th in blocks and 17th in assists per set.

In 2013, Meek guided the Warriors to their first winning season with a school-best 20-12 record. Hendrix also finished tied for third place in conference and advanced to the SAA Tournament finals.

Meek served as a volunteer assistant for the University of Arkansas from January 2007-July 2008 where he coached one All-Southeastern Conference selection and an All-SEC Freshman Team performer.

From 2004-06, Meek was the head girls varsity coach and assistant boys coach for Simi Valley High School in California. He led the SVHS girls to three consecutive top five regional rankings and the state playoffs for the first time in school history. The boy's squad received a national ranking and Meek coached 10 future collegiate players.

Meek was the starting setter for Quincy University in 2003, where he led the Hawks in assists and finished third in the league in assists per set. In 2002, Meek led Moorpark College and the state of California in assists, setting Moorpark's single-season assists record.

Meek was a three-year letterman at opposite and outside hitter at Simi Valley High School. He led the team in kills and digs for two seasons and helped SVHS to a top 10 national ranking as a senior in 2000.

Angie Oxley Behrens

A former national champion and four-year starter at the University of Nebraska, Angie Oxley Behrens returns for her 14th season as an assistant coach at Creighton. An original member of Kirsten Bernthal Booth's staff, she is the longest-tenured assistant coach in program history.

Behrens works closely with Creighton's outside hitters, while also assisting with scouting and recruiting. Behrens also helps organize Creighton's volleyball camps.

The Bluejays have spent parts of each of the last four seasons ranked in the Top 25, continuing an upward trend. CU's 2015 team finished the fall ranked No. 19 nationally, the best mark in program history. The last 13 years have seen the Creighton team compile its top 10 single-season kill totals all-time, as well as the top six individual single-season marks that were set by Jaali Winters, Leah Ratzlaff (3x), Alicia Runge and Kelly Goc.

Behrens has trained six outside hitters to all-conference honors, including Leah Ratzlaff (2004, 2005), Amanda Cvejdlik (2008), Melanie Jereb (2012), Leah McNary (2013), Jess Bird (2014, 2015) and Jaali Winters (2015). Winters was named BIG EAST Freshman of the Year, AVCA East Region Freshman of the Year, AVCA Third Team All-American and Creighton's Female Athlete of the Year after a school-record 546 kills in 2015.

Behrens has seen Creighton go 262-146 in her 13 seasons on the bench, including NCAA Tournament wins in 2010, 2012, 2013 and 2015.

While at NU, Behrens won three Big 12 titles, was named 1997 Big 12 Freshman of the Year and was chosen as the University's female student-athlete of the year in 2001 after leading the Cornhuskers to a 34-0 mark and national title in the fall of 2000 as a senior.

She closed her career as the NU's all-time digs leader with 1,086.

In the classroom, Behrens was a Chancellor's Scholar and four-time Highest Honors Distinction Medal honoree. She also was a four-year academic All-Big 12 selection, a recipient of an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship and one of 10 finalists for the 2001 NCAA Woman of the Year. She was also a member of the Mortar Board Honor Society, Pi Lambda Theta Honor Society, Golden Key, 2000 Homecoming Royalty Court and the Dean's List.

Behrens and her husband, Matt, were married in 2006. The couple resides in Lincoln with their two kids, Logan (6) and Hattie (3).

Micah Rhodes

Micah Rhodes is in his first season at Creighton as a volunteer assistant coach.

Rhodes spent the past four seasons as an assistant coach at Buena Vista, where he worked alongside Lori Slight to help the program turn the corner and work to become a contender in the Iowa Conference.

Last year's team finished 18-16 overall, with Rhodes taking charge during league play after Slight took a leave of absence. He helped coach the program's first IIAC Most Valuable Player (Maddie Bardole), and also the program's first All-American (Jade Schaap) during the 2015 campaign.

BVU's 2014 team won 25 matches, its highest total since 1986. The Beavers tied for second in the Iowa Conference standings - their best regular-season finish ever -- and also made its first trip to the IIAC tournament championship match since 2003.

During his tenure with the Beavers, Rhodes was recognized as a member of the 2014 Iowa Conference Coaching Staff of the Year. He mentored six First-Team All-IIAC selections, two back-to-back Iowa Conference Freshman of the Year winners (2013, 2014), as well as the 2014 AVCA Central Region Freshman of the Year.

Prior to joining the bench in 2012, he served as a student manager at Nebraska from June of 2008 through May 2011, while also serving as a practice assistant, office staff member and video coordinator. During that time, the Huskers posted an overall mark of 86-13.

He was the Vice-President of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln's Men's Club Volleyball team during his senior year in 2011. A three-year starting outside hitter, Rhodes was on a team that made three consecutive NIRSA national tournament Sweet 16 appearances from 2009-11.

Block Solos and Block Assists

A block solo is awarded when a single player blocks the ball into the opposition's court leading directly to a point. That player must be the only blocker attempting to block the ball.
A block assist is awarded when two or three players block the ball into the opponent's court for a point. Each player blocking receives a block assist even if only one player actually makes contact with the ball.

29-4 Overall, 17-1 MVC (1st)

One of the best seasons by any women's team in Creighton history saw the Bluejays close their 19-year run in the MVC by winning the program's first Valley regular-season and Tournament titles. CU won early-season tournaments at South Florida and Northern Colorado before clinching the outright league crown with a memorable 3-2 comeback win at rival Wichita State. The Jays swept the Shockers eight days later for the Valley Tourney title, and defeated Marquette to open NCAA Tournament play before falling at Minnesota. Megan Bober was named MVC Player of the Year and Tournament MVP, while Kelli Browning was tabbed MVC Defensive Player of the Year. Both women were named AVCA All-American Honorable Mention and were joined on the All-MVC First Team by Melanie Jereb. Kirsten Bernthal Booth was named MVC Coach of the Year and CaptainU National Coach of the Year. Creighton spent four weeks in the AVCA Top 25 for the first time, reaching as high as No. 21, before finishing No. 24.

23-9 Overall, 12-4 BIG EAST (2nd)

Creighton's first year in the BIG EAST Conference saw the Bluejays reach the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the third time in four years. Creighton would go 9-3 against a grueling non-conference schedule and move into the AVCA Top 25 for the first six weeks. The Bluejays opened the year with a win over No. 13 BYU, and would later earn impressive wins over Kansas, Cal State Northridge and Wichita State before opening league play. Creighton swept eventual BIG EAST regular-season and tournament champ Marquette in mid-October, and would earn the No. 2 seed for the league tourney in Omaha before falling in four to the Golden Eagles in the title match. Creighton topped Arkansas in the NCAA Tournament before being eliminated in four close sets at Kansas. Kelli Browning and Leah McNary were named First Team All-BIG EAST, while Michelle Sicner was a second team all-conference pick. Both Browning and Sicner went on to earn AVCA All-American Honorable-Mention accolades. The Bluejays led the nation with 3.06 blocks per set.

BIG EAST Conference Regular-Season Champions
BIG EAST Tournament Champions
27-9 Overall, 17-1 BIG EAST (1st)

Creighton won its second consecutive BIG EAST regular-season and tournament titles to earn its fifth NCAA Tournament bid in six seasons, then advanced to the Sweet 16 for the first time in program history. Creighton played five top-11 teams in non-conference play, including a 3-0 sweep over No. 10 Kentucky. A five-set comeback over Kansas State ignited a 12-match win streak, and CU won the BIG EAST by three games with a 17-1 mark. The Bluejays then defended their home court with victories over Marquette and Villanova to win the BIG EAST Tournament. Creighton earned the No. 16 national seed, but did not bid to host, and was sent to Chapel Hill, N.C., for postseason play. CU defeated Coastal Carolina and No. 23 North Carolina to clinch a Sweet 16 appearance, where it won the first set from No. 2 USC before falling in four. The most victorious senior class in program history was led by all-time digs leader Kate Elman, while Jess Bird was named BIG EAST Tourney MVP. Jaali Winters spearheaded the nation's No. 11 recruiting class and was named BIG EAST Freshman of the Year and Third Team All-American while setting a CU record for kills in a season. Lauren Smith was First Team All-BIG EAST and Honorable-Mention All-American. Kirsten Bernthal Booth was named BIG EAST Coach of the Year and AVCA East Region Coach of the Year.

Creighton University

Location

Creighton is located in Omaha, Neb., which has a metropolitan area population of more than 900,000.

Creighton History

Founded in 1878, Creighton University is a private university, one of 28 Catholic, Jesuit colleges and universities in the United States.

Creighton Today

Creighton is nationally recognized as a leading university in the Midwest, known for student-centered education and significant undergraduate student research opportunities. As a Jesuit university, Creighton is committed to academic excellence and service to others and seeks to create an inclusive, diverse community.

In addition to the College of Arts and Sciences, the University's oldest and largest college, Creighton includes the Heider College of Business, the College of Nursing, the College of Professional Studies, the Graduate School, and the Schools of Dentistry, Law, Medicine, and Pharmacy and Health Professions.

The freshman academic profile places Creighton among the Top 10 private Midwestern universities with more than 4,000 undergraduates and among the Top 10 Catholic universities in the nation.

For the 13th year in a row, Creighton is the No. 1 Midwest regional university in the annual U.S. News & World Report magazine's college rankings. U.S. News also again cited Creighton as a "best value" university for giving students the best return on their tuition investment and ranked the University No. 1 in the Midwest region for veterans. Creighton was also named among only 49 schools nationally as a top school for undergraduate research opportunities.

The Princeton Review listed Creighton as one of the nation's top 380 colleges and universities in its 2016 college guide and Washington Monthly ranked Creighton at No. 3 for Best Master's University.

Campus Life

Creighton offers more than 200 student clubs and organizations, including academic, athletic, cultural, Greek, political, professional, service, social and spiritual groups, as well as opportunities to work on campus publications.

Nine sophisticated on-campus living environments include two junior/senior townhome residence halls with technologically rich furnished apartments and complete kitchens.

Last year, Creighton students took part in more than 1 million hours of community service at local, national and international community organizations.

Creighton welcomes students of all religious beliefs and the University encourages students to participate in retreats, faith-sharing opportunities and multi-faith services.

Students may enroll in Creighton's service-learning semester in the Dominican Republic, faculty-led courses taught abroad, or study at one of 161 institutions located in 53 countries through exchange or affiliate programs.

Creighton also offers online education and has campuses outside of the Omaha area, including our School of Medicine Regional Campus at St. Joseph's Hospital and Medical Center in Phoenix; an occupational therapy partnership with the University of Alaska in Anchorage; and a campus for nursing students in Hastings, Neb.

Our Alumni

More than 60,000 Creighton alumni live in 90 countries, with 30 percent living in Nebraska. The largest number of alumni who live outside the United States reside in Canada, Japan and Malaysia.

Student Snapshot

Creighton has more than 8,000 students: More than 4,000 are enrolled as undergraduates and more than 4,000 are in the graduate, law, medical, dental, pharmacy, physical therapy, occupational therapy and professional studies programs.

In 2016, our students come from 49 states, the U.S. territories, and 56 other nations.

One-third of Creighton undergraduates participate in research before graduating. Last year, 200 of these students presented their research findings at local, state and national professional conferences.

The Creighton Campus

Creighton is committed to being a model living-learning campus environment. The 139-acre campus is located within walking distance of downtown Omaha and many recreational, cultural and entertainment opportunities. The campus design and master plan have received top awards in landscape and architecture.

Since 2000, Creighton has invested more than $300 million in on-campus improvements and planned expansion to create a more vibrant and robust campus:

- Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium, the region's only athletic facility designed exclusively for soccer. The stadium hosts high school, club and international soccer events and a variety of Omaha community events.
- The Hixson-Lied Science Building, the renovated Rigge Science Building and Criss Health Sciences Building form the centerpiece of Creighton's undergraduate and health professions' leading approach to teaching and research.
- Davis Square and Opus Hall are upperclassman townhome residence halls located on the east side of campus.
- The Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena serves as an on-campus home to Creighton women's basketball and volleyball.
- The Rasmussen Fitness & Sports Center opened in the fall of 2012.
- The Mike and Josie Harper Center became the home of the Heider College of Business in the fall of 2013.
- The Championship Center opened in 2014.

At the center of campus is the heart of the University, the historic and recently restored St. John's Church, as well as the California Street Mall, the Lied Education Center for the Arts, the V.J. and Angela Skutt Student Center and the Kiewit Fitness Center.

The University recently undertook the largest renovation project in its history, with more than 100,000 sq. ft. of academic space being remodeled.

History of Billy Bluejay

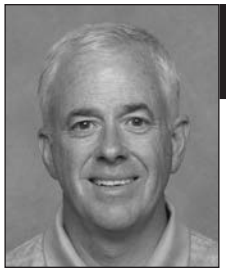
Billy Bluejay is the official mascot of the Creighton University Athletics Department. Creighton is a private, Jesuit NCAA Division I school in Omaha, Neb., founded in 1878.

Prior to 1924, with no official athletics nickname, University publications and news media often referred to Creighton athletic teams by the school's colors – the "White and Blue," or vice versa. Because of Creighton's location atop a bluff, the team was occasionally designated unofficially as the "Hilltoppers," but the name lost favor because at least six other teams in the country went by the same nickname. At the behest of Creighton's Athletics Board and Alumni Association, the Omaha Bee newspaper coordinated a public contest in late 1923 to select a nickname and mascot for Creighton University athletic teams. After reviewing 200 entries, the Athletics Board decided upon "Bluejays" because the color of the bird was in keeping with school colors.

The Bluejays were originally depicted by an ornithologically correct rendition of the bird. In 1941, Creighton alumnus Joseph P. Murphy, a 1931 graduate of the College of Business and, at the time, a Creighton journalism professor and the head of its public relations department, designed a graphical image of the bird with a more human stance and expression. Murphy's 1941 design remained largely intact for the past 72 years with only minor revisions. While it is unclear on the exact year the first walking costume mascot modeled after Murphy's 1941 graphical image appeared publicly or the first time the image or mascot were referred to as "Billy Bluejay," many costumes were created, changed/re-designed over the past seven decades as Billy became a fixture at Creighton Athletics events, roaming the sidelines to cheer on his beloved Bluejays.

In October, 2013, in conjunction with Creighton's move to the BIG EAST Conference, the University unveiled a new Athletics brand – athletic logo, sport-specific logos and corresponding secondary marks designed to increase overall awareness of the Creighton University Bluejays - locally, regionally and nationally. The new logo was designed to build on the history, tradition and love of previous Billy Bluejay icons while maintaining the integrity of the past and establishing the new Creighton Bluejay brand as a distinct and recognizable identity in the BIG EAST.

Creighton Athletics turned to Street Characters to provide an updated Billy Bluejay walking mascot costume, one that was more vibrant, more athletic and one that more closely resembled the new athletics brand. The new-look Billy Bluejay walking mascot costume made his first public appearance in front of over 17,000 fans when the Creighton men's basketball team hosted Nebraska on Dec. 8 at CenturyLink Center Omaha.



Athletic Director Bruce Rasmussen

The 2016-17 vice chair and 2017-18 chairman of the highly esteemed NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee, Bruce Rasmussen enters his 23rd year as director of athletics, and 37th overall at Creighton University.

During Rasmussen's tenure, Creighton has risen to prominence with its success on and off the field, impressive facilities and record-breaking fundraising efforts.

For evidence, look no further than four recent projects that continue to change the area's athletics scene. The Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena opened in 2009 and immediately gave Creighton's women's basketball and volleyball teams a top-notch facility to call home. TD Ameritrade Park Omaha, home to Bluejay baseball and the College World Series, opened in 2011 to rave reviews. Just east of the Ryan Athletic Center is Creighton's student recreation center that was named the Rasmussen Center in his honor in 2012. The most recent addition to the campus is the Championship Center, which opened in June 2014 and is considered one of the best of its kind.

Those projects add to an overhaul in the school's athletic facilities over the past 15 years, which has also seen Creighton begin play at two of the finest facilities nationwide -- Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium (soccer) and CenturyLink Center Omaha (men's basketball).

Rasmussen also helped lead the charge for one of the biggest moves in school history when the school accepted an invitation into the BIG EAST Conference in March of 2013.

Since Rasmussen assumed the role of athletics director, Creighton has won 33 regular-season and 38 conference tournament titles, which have helped lead to 76 postseason appearances. The Bluejays remain the only school in the history of the Missouri Valley Conference to make 16 straight men's basketball postseasons, and have made the NCAA Tournament in men's soccer in 23 of the past 24 years. Creighton was also recognized with the MVC All-Academic Award in seven of its last nine seasons in the league, including a record 3.37 GPA in the spring of 2012 by student-athletes.

A member of the College World Series of Omaha, Inc., Executive Committee, Rasmussen continues to play a vital role in Creighton and the city of Omaha remaining as host of the College World Series. He was one of six individuals on the CWS Oversight Committee that helped decide the location for the new downtown TD Ameritrade Park Omaha, which will help keep the CWS in Omaha for another 25 years. With Creighton serving as host, the CWS has welcomed more than 300,000 fans in each of the last 11 years.

Rasmussen was one of four regional winners from the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) to take home a 2004 GeneralSports TURF Systems AD of the Year Award. In both 2010 and 2015, Rasmussen was honored with an Under Armour AD of the Year award by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics. In 2008, he was inducted into the Omaha Sports Hall of Fame.

Creighton's reputation as one of the nation's top academic institutions is reflected in the success the Bluejay student-athletes have had in the classroom during Rasmussen's service as athletics director. Creighton's baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, women's golf, women's soccer as well as men's and women's tennis teams all have received national awards for their academic success. Bluejay student-athletes have owned GPAs of 3.30 or above in 20 straight semesters entering the fall of 2016.

Creighton's primary annual athletics fundraising events are the Bluejay Bash and the Bluejay Jamboree. Under Rasmussen's leadership, each of these events continues to raise record-breaking funds for Creighton athletics. Most notably, the 2015 Jamboree generated more than $550,000 through its gourmet dinner, raffle and auction.

Rasmussen accepted the associate athletics director position in 1992 after a 12-year run as the winningest coach in Creighton women's basketball history (196-147), that culminating in the program's historic 1991-92 season. The 1992 Western Athletic Conference Coach of the Year, Rasmussen led the 1991-92 Bluejay women to a program-record 28 wins (28-4), the WAC regular-season and tournament championships and a first-round NCAA Tournament victory in the program's first-ever trip to the "Big Dance." With that 28-4 record in 1991-92, Rasmussen completed his college coaching career with a 196-147 record, good for a .571 winning percentage.

After serving as associate athletics director for two years, 1992-94, Rasmussen was named athletics director on Aug. 1, 1994. A native of Webster City, Iowa, Rasmussen and his wife, Jill, have five children: Megan, David, John, Katie and Grace.

President Rev. Daniel S. Hendrickson, S.J., Ph.D.

The Rev. Daniel Hendrickson, S.J., Ph.D., is the 25th president of Creighton University. A Nebraska native, Fr. Hendrickson earned his B.A. in psychology and theology from Marquette University in 1993 and entered the Society of Jesus in 1994. He received his M.A. in philosophical resources from Fordham University, a Master of Divinity degree from the Jesuit School of Theology at Santa Clara University, and M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from Columbia University.

Fr. Hendrickson's first contact with Creighton was as a student in the Jesuit Humanities Program in 1996. He returned as an adjunct instructor of philosophy from 2000 to 2003. He also served as an adjunct professor with Creighton's Institute for Latin American Concern (ILAC) program in Santiago, Dominican Republic, in 2002. Fr. Hendrickson was a visiting instructor at Jordan University College in Morogoro, Tanzania, and an adjunct professor of philosophy at Fordham University. He was elected to the Creighton Board of Trustees in 2013 while serving in leadership positions at Marquette University, and then came to Creighton as president in 2015.

Fr. Hendrickson's special interest in education with a global perspective led to the creation of the Creighton Global Initiative (CGI), which has awarded $1.5 million to faculty, staff and students for new and continuing international projects. Creighton currently has 21 academic, service, research, internship and volunteer programs in 17 countries. Fr. Hendrickson's international travel and immersion experiences have taken him to 35 countries on nearly every continent.

Fr. Hendrickson, who grew up in Fremont, Neb., comes from a family of educators. His identical twin, the Rev. D. Scott Hendrickson, S.J., Ph.D., is an assistant professor of modern languages at Loyola University Chicago, while his older brother, Ryan Hendrickson, Ph.D., is a political science professor and interim dean of the Graduate School at Eastern Illinois University.

D.J. Sokol Arena Inside the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center

The Ryan and Sokol families were honored during the dedication of the facility at intermission of the Creighton vs. Texas Tech volleyball match on Aug. 28, 2009.

Wayne and the late Eileen Ryan pose with Billy Bluejay at the groundbreaking for the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena.

Thanks to the generous donations of Wayne and the late Eileen Ryan and family, Dave and Peggy Sokol, and many others, D.J. Sokol Arena inside the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center was dedicated on Aug. 28, 2009.

The 75,000-square-foot facility houses a gymnasium holding 2,500 fans, as well as coaches' offices and locker rooms for volleyball, women's basketball, men's soccer, women's soccer and visiting teams and officials. It also houses areas for ticketing, athletic training, meeting rooms, media workrooms and hospitality functions. In addition, the arena is used for other campus and community events, including assemblies, coaching camps and clinics, concerts, speakers and high school graduations.

The Ryans and their family are longtime supporters of Creighton University. Wayne Ryan, BS'49, MS'51, chairman and CEO of Streck Laboratories, Inc., began his career teaching at Creighton before pursuing his passion for research that led to the founding of his company. Wayne Ryan is also a Jaybacker and his daughter, Connie, serves on Creighton's Board of Trustees.

Dave and Peggy Sokol honored their son, D.J., who died in 1999 following a battle with Hodgkin's disease, by naming the gymnasium the D.J. Sokol Arena. Sokol is a former chairman and CEO of MidAmerican Energy Holdings Company, a global leader in the production, supply and distribution of energy from diversified fuel sources, and formerly served on Creighton University's Board of Trustees.

D.J. Sokol

"Visionary donors like the Ryans and Sokols make our dreams of an even stronger athletics program, championed by intensely loyal fans, more of a reality," said Creighton athletics director Bruce Rasmussen. "This Bluejay spirit is a unifying characteristic that enhances the institution's visibility and reputation."

Inside the Ryan Center, the Jensen Family Lounge features a theater-style viewing area for television, movies and game film, as well as a study area, kitchenette and gaming area. TV's throughout the lounge give the student-athletes multiple viewing options. The lounge is also easily converted into a media room for the post-game press conferences for both volleyball and women's basketball.

Creighton averaged 1,661 fans per home match in 2015, winning a school-record 15 home matches.

Home Venue History

For the eighth straight season, Creighton will play its home volleyball matches on campus at D.J. Sokol Arena in the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center. The building has served as host of the 2009 MVC and 2013 and 2015 BIG EAST Conference Volleyball Championships.

More than 182,000 bricks, 654 tons of steel and 30 miles of electrical wire were used during construction, which employed up to 115 workers at one time.

The height of the roof ridge is 78'-10" above the arena floor, with a ceiling fan measuring 20 feet in diameter spinning high above the playing surface.

Creighton has averaged 1,137 fans per match all-time at D.J. Sokol Arena.

Creighton uses a volleyball-specific sport court surface at D.J. Sokol Arena.

In addition to a large locker room and team lounge at D.J. Sokol Arena, Creighton's volleyball program also benefits from coaching offices and athletic training rooms in the Ryan Athletic Center. The Ryan Athletic Center houses the offices for most of Creighton's support staff, including ticketing, athletic development, marketing, and sports information. The school uses a sport court surface for its volleyball matches and practices.

Think of Omaha as center court: a dynamic and unique destination in the center of the country, full of action. Omaha has this special spirit that fills the city like an arena full of fans whose team just won with a buzzer beater. Excitement abounds for what it has built, what it has accomplished and what's still ahead.

It's a spirit born on the banks of the Missouri River, a city founded in 1854 by land speculators convinced they were at the heart of something new. Soon after, the transcontinental railroad was built and Omaha emerged as a hotbed of activity and new technologies.

There is a great story about Omaha's growth in the early days that really speaks to the pioneering spirit of the city. As Omaha prepared to lay underground cables for telephones, workers were trying to figure out the easiest way to string the lines. Being an inventive bunch, Omahans solved the problem by getting ferrets to help carry the lines through the tunnels. Sounds extraordinary, but it worked. Today, Omaha is at the center of the telecommunications industry. Call for a hotel reservation from anywhere in the U.S. and you are probably calling Omaha. The city is home to the Hyatt, Marriott, Radisson, and Omni reservation centers. That infrastructure is also key to the nation's defense. Offutt Air Force Base, home to STRATCOM, is based here. STRATCOM is the nation's eyes, ears and muscle when it comes to protecting the country.

That spirit is also seen in Omaha's modern day pioneers. Warren Buffett, one of the wealthiest men in the world, is a plainspoken Omaha-born and bred financial pioneer. When Warren speaks, people listen, learn and make money. In fact, as you look at the four Fortune 500 companies that call Omaha home, they are all innovators: Berkshire Hathaway, Union Pacific, Mutual of Omaha and Peter Kiewit Sons'.

A view of the Omaha skyline at night. More than 850,000 people live in metro Omaha, and about 1.2 million people live within a 50-mile radius.

It's not just the business community that embodies that spirit; you can also listen to it, touch it, taste it and feel it when you visit Omaha.

Home to the world's largest indoor rainforest, next to the world's largest indoor desert under the world's largest geodesic dome, Omaha's Henry Doorly Zoo is a can't miss when you're in town. Experience what it's like to go underground and see rare creatures that only come out at night, or surround yourself with sharks as you walk through an 850,000-gallon underwater tunnel. Talk about innovative: The zoo has spent $6 million on a research facility allowing it to respond to national and international conservation needs.

Omaha's three Smithsonian-affiliated museums feature diverse offerings. Gaze at a 15,000-pound glass sculpture suspended in the air at the Joslyn Art Museum, hop on board Harry S. Truman's press train at the Durham Museum, or "pilot" a fighter jet at the Strategic Air and Space Museum, home to some of the most prized and rarely displayed military aircraft. Discover how nature can seem brand new as you walk through over 100 acres of lush and rare flora at Lauritzen Gardens, Omaha's botanical center.

Omaha is a mecca to music pioneers, as the city is known by many as the nation's premier hot spot for the indie rock scene. It's home to famed Saddle Creek Records and nationally renowned bands such as Bright Eyes, The Faint and Cursive.

Omaha is a city that never forgets its past. The Old Market is the true merging of old and new. The historic warehouse district was preserved and transformed into an art, shopping and dining district. Unique shops and restaurants lining cobblestone streets, it's a place to remember where you've been and where you're going.

The Bob Kerrey Pedestrian Bridge S-curves its way across the Missouri River. This one-of-a-kind structure is the longest pedestrian bridge to link two states.

It's just one more example of how Omaha stays fresh and innovative, all thanks to that indelible pioneering spirit.

Creighton's baseball team shares the same home as the College World Series, TD Ameritrade Park Omaha.

BIG EAST Conference

The BIG EAST Conference moves forward in 2016-17, the fourth year of its current consortium of 10 outstanding and revered academic institutions. Founded by Dave Gavitt in 1979, the BIG EAST reorganized in 2013 and entered a new era by returning to its basketball-centric heritage. The league's 10 member schools—Butler University, Creighton University, DePaul University, Georgetown University, Marquette University, Providence College, St. John's University, Seton Hall University, Villanova University, and Xavier University—embrace a constant commitment to academic integrity, athletic excellence and community service.

Val Ackerman, who previously served as founding President of the WNBA, President of USA Basketball and U.S. representative to the International Basketball Federation (FIBA), was named fifth Commissioner of the BIG EAST in conjunction with the conference's 2013 reconfiguration. Under her leadership, the BIG EAST has maintained its reputation for top-level achievement in athletics and has continued to be influential on the national intercollegiate landscape, with many conference and school administrators currently serving on key NCAA committees.

Since its inception in 1979, the BIG EAST has been lauded as a leader in innovative concepts in promotion, particularly television, and that reputation continues with the conference's relationship with FOX Sports. The BIG EAST has a fruitful multi-year partnership with FOX Sports and its national cable network FS1. FOX's comprehensive coverage of BIG EAST men's basketball includes the broadcast of all regular season games on FOX, FS1, FS2 or FOX Regional Networks, as well as the BIG EAST Tournament at Madison Square Garden, college basketball's longest-running postseason basketball conference tourney held at the same venue. The BIG EAST and FOX also have established an annual five-game marathon in men's basketball with all 10 teams competing on the same day in league competition.

BIG EAST institutions are located in seven of the nation's top 35 largest media markets, including New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Washington, D.C., Indianapolis, Milwaukee and Cincinnati.

FOX Sports platforms carry complete coverage of women's basketball regular season play and the BIG EAST Women's Basketball Tournament. Every Olympic sport championship is also carried on the network or digital platforms.

The BIG EAST has also increased the visibility of its member school programs with the expansion of the BIG EAST Digital Network (BEDN). When the conference launched BEDN in 2014-15, the league became the first collegiate conference to be hosted on the FOX Sports mobile platform, FOX Sports Go, the app that provides live streaming of FOX Sports content. BEDN will carry 225 live events in 2016-17, with an emphasis on women's basketball, soccer and Olympic sport regular season and championship events.

The BIG EAST Conference became a reality in May of 1979 through the vision of Gavitt, the former Providence College men's basketball coach and athletic director. Providence, St. John's, Georgetown, Syracuse, Seton Hall, Connecticut and Boston College formed the original seven-school alliance, and within the span of just a few years the conference had become a national powerhouse in men's basketball. While the composition of the BIG EAST evolved over the next three decades, the focus of its schools did not waver, reflecting a tradition of broad-based programs led by administrators and coaches who emphasize academic strength and fair play.

In December of 2012, the seven BIG EAST schools that do not compete in FBS football—DePaul, Georgetown, Marquette, Providence, St. John's, Seton Hall and Villanova—announced their intention to separate from the conference's football-playing schools and form an independent association. On March 20, 2013, the seven schools reached an agreement that enabled them to retain the BIG EAST name and assume the old conference's long-term pact with Madison Square Garden to host the BIG EAST Men's Basketball Tournament, one of the premier events in college athletics. The schools also announced the addition of three distinguished institutions sharing the same academic and athletic values —Butler, Creighton and Xavier— and forged a landmark, long-term broadcast partnership with FOX Sports. The BIG EAST moved its headquarters from its original location in Providence, R.I., to midtown Manhattan in New York City to complete the transformation. The BIG EAST's new era officially began on July 1, 2013, its effective date as the NCAA's 32nd Division I conference.

To complement its athletic successes, the launched BIG EAST Serves in 2014 as the conference's platform to align the academic, health, leadership and service missions of the 10 member institutions. Initiatives housed under the BIG EAST Serves umbrella, such as BIG EAST Serves Day, the BIG EAST Career Consortium and the national partnership with the It's On Us campaign, reflect the conference's commitment to developing the complete BIG EAST student-athlete and making a positive contribution to the campus communities of its member schools and conference's headquarters in New York.

In the fall of 2015, the BIG EAST hosted its inaugural Freshmen Fundamentals, a unique program designed to assist men's basketball student-athletes in the transition from high school to college and the elite level of BIG EAST basketball.

BIG EAST institutions boast high graduation rates for their student-athletes, and the league has always been able to say that many of its best athletes are also its best students. Ryan Arcidiacono, the starting guard for Villanova's national champion men's basketball team and the Most Outstanding Player at the 2016 Final Four, also was one of five finalists for the 2015-16 Senior CLASS Award in his sport for excellence in classroom, community, character and competition. DePaul women's tennis standout Rebeca Mitrea was a conference nominee for NCAA Woman of the Year, an award that honors academic achievements, athletic excellence, community service and leadership.

The conference, which crowns champions in 22 sports, had league teams earn a total of 24 NCAA berths and 42 individual NCAA invitations in 2015-16. Seven different national postseason championships saw multiple BIG EAST teams participate, including five teams in men's basketball and three in women's basketball. BIG EAST schools produced 12 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, including six in soccer (four male, two female).

Current BIG EAST men's basketball programs have enjoyed extraordinary success over the years. Villanova won the 2016 NCAA Championship, its second in school history. Georgetown and Marquette also have won the national title. DePaul, Providence, St. John's and Seton Hall have all made it to the Final Four. The BIG EAST placed three men's basketball teams in the Final Four in 1985—Georgetown, St. John's and Villanova—the only time this has occurred in NCAA history. Over the past 13 years, Butler, Georgetown, Marquette and Villanova have reached the Final Four, with Butler and Villanova making two trips. Xavier has advanced to the Elite Eight twice and the Sweet 16 four other times.

BIG EAST student-athletes have achieved recent success in other sports, as well. A BIG EAST team has won the NCAA women's cross country championship four of the last seven years (Villanova won twice; Providence and Georgetown once), with one runner-up finish (Providence). Creighton's men's soccer team has reached the NCAA College Cup in two of the past four seasons, with the Providence men advancing to the semifinals in 2014.

In the 37 years since the original league opened its doors, BIG EAST teams have won 39 national championships in eight different sports with 144 student-athletes winning individual national titles in the league's history. Since 2013, the BIG EAST has produced eight national champions.

Creighton University officially became a member of the BIG EAST Conference at 12:01 a.m. on July 1, 2013. The 2016-17 season will be Creighton's fourth in the league.

Creighton, along with fellow newcomers Butler and Xavier, joined a BIG EAST that retained DePaul, Georgetown, Marquette, Seton Hall, Providence, Villanova and St. John's. The partnership was announced on March 20, 2013, in New York.

The 2016-17 academic year will be the 38th in the history of the BIG EAST, a league synonymous with men's basketball that has evolved into a well-rounded league that competes nationally at the highest level in sports across the board. BIG EAST basketball squads have captured 14 titles in the last 17 years, including a Villanova title in men's basketball in 2015-16.

Since opening its doors in 1979, the league has won 39 national championships in eight different sports and 144 student-athletes have won individual national titles through 2015-16.

All 10 schools reside within a top-75 media market, including eight schools in a top-35 market.

The BIG EAST became a reality on May 31, 1979, following a meeting of athletic directors from the original seven-school alliance.

"We feel that joining the BIG EAST Conference gives us a greater opportunity to recruit, retain, develop, and graduate outstanding students and outstanding student-athletes. We know that continued success and excellence in each of our athletics programs will not be easy. We chose to join the BIG EAST not because it will be easy to be successful, we know it will be difficult. At Creighton University, we believe that goals that are difficult to achieve are the most worthwhile."
